

FROM NEW YORK / TWO DAYS ONLY

The Relationship Presents:

Flow (Winged Crocodile) / The Trains

Dec 21-22; 8pm

ODC Theater

A Play by Leslie Scalapino

Performed by The Relationship

Directed by Fiona Templeton

With Katie Brown, Stephanie Silver and Julie Troost

Dance created and performed by Molissa Fenley

Music by Joan Jeanrenaud

Costumes by Jill St Coeur

Video compiled by Stephanie Silver and Danny Koenig

Video edit by John Jesurun

Projected drawings by Eve Biddle

Production Manager Howard Klein

THE RELATIONSHIP is a New York City performance group dedicated to creating and presenting works of innovative language, site and relations to the audience. Its Artistic Director Fiona Templeton is also a poet and has created award-winning and groundbreaking work for over 30 years.

This extraordinary text by the late poet Leslie Scalapino flows between the incarnations of Tanya (the kidnapped Patty Hearst in the 1974 SLA bank heist) and the left & right sides of the brain, while award-winning dancer/choreographer Molissa Fenley is the green-winged Crocodile-Michelin (man)-(charging) Rhino; pure kinetic daemonic motion.

TICKETS: $15 General; $12 Students/Seniors • By phone: (415) 863-9834 with credit card
Tickets available in person at ODC Theater: Wed-Sat; 12-6pm • Online: odctheater.org

BOX OFFICE AND PERFORMANCE LOCATION:

3153 17th Street between Shotwell and S. Van Ness • San Francisco, CA 94110